Kitchen will be open: Bring your appetite for lunch!

Never been to a quarter auction? Here are some details:

$5 will pay for your 1st paddle and a corresponding numbered chip will be placed into a larger container. We will have an announcer who will describe the item and what the retail value is. The announcer will then tell you how many quarters this item is worth. If you wish to "bid" on this item, there will be a cup on your table, you will place the appropriate amount of quarters into the cup and hold up your paddle. Once all the quarters are collected, our announcer will begin calling numbers – if he calls your number – YOU WIN!!!
